

Notice No. 1273, dated the 10th December 1912.

The Municipal Council, Bangalore City, having, at their Meeting held on the 30th November 1912, approved the undermentioned Draft Bye-laws relating to the Dangerous and Offensive Trades in the City, they are hereby published for the information of the public.

2. Objections or suggestions in respect thereof received in writing within one month from the date of the publication of this notice, will be duly considered by the Council.

B. S. RANOJI RAO,
For President.

Draft Bye-laws relating to Dangerous and Offensive Trades in the City of Bangalore, framed under Section 48 (1) (b) (III) and Section 151 of the Mysore Municipal Regulation, VII of 1906.

1. These Bye-laws are called "the Dangerous and Offensive Trades Bye-laws."

2. In these Bye-laws unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,

A. Dangerous Trade means the business of—

(a) Storing for sale, or selling.

- (1) Firewood.
- (2) Hay, straw or any other dried fodder for cattle.
- (3) Coal, charcoal.

(b) or storing for sale—

- (4) Kerosene-oil in godowns.
- (5) Petroleum in godowns.
- (6) Kerosene-oil in tanks.
- (7) Petroleum in tanks.

B. Offensive Trade means the business of—

- (1) Boiling or storing offal, blood, bones, or rags.
- (2) Storing hides, horns or skins.
- (3) Tanning.
- (4) Dyeing.
- (5) Washing or drying of wool or hair.
- (6) Making or manufacturing of bricks.
- (7) Making or manufacturing of tiles ; pottery or other earthenware or lime.
- (8) Manufacturing oil by boiling.
- (9) Camphor boiling.
- (10) Soap making.
- (11) Using any place as a cart-stand.
- (12) Using any place as a smithy.

C. Manager means the person under whose authority or control or for whose benefit a dangerous or offensive trade is carried on, whether such person is the proprietor of the business or the agent in charge thereof.

3. The manager of every place used for the purpose of a dangerous or offensive trade as defined in clause 2 above, shall not use it as such without obtaining a license from the President therefor. He shall, on or before the 1st of July in every year, apply to the President for the renewal of the license in respect of such place.

4. The fees leviable on licenses to carry on dangerous or offensive trades shall be as follows :—

A—Dangerous Trades—

- (1) For each class of business, Rs. 5 per annum.
- (2) Rs. 14 per tank of kerosene-oil or petroleum or Rs. 2 per 1,000 gallons on the capacity of the tank subject to a minimum of Rs. 14 per annum.

B—Offensive Trades—

For each class of business or each kiln, or furnace for bricks, pottery, tiles, lime, camphor boiling, oil-boiling, etc., Rs. 5 per annum.

Note.—In the case of hand-made bricks, the license fee shall be Rs. 5 for a kiln of 100,000 bricks or a fraction thereof.

5. No such license will be granted unless the place intended for the purpose is suitable for the trade to be carried on there without the likelihood of causing any danger or nuisance to the persons residing in, or resorting to, the neighbourhood.

6. Every manager as aforesaid shall keep the place licensed for the purpose open between 7 A.M. and 10 A.M., and 3 P.M. and 5.30 P.M., to inspection by the President, Vice-President, Health Officer, Sanitary Inspector and a Police Inspector and shall afford every facility for such inspection.

7. Every such manager shall be bound to furnish to the President, whenever called on to do so such statistics as show the quantity of the goods received, stored, manufactured, sold or exported by him.

8. In the case of dangerous trades as defined above—

- (1) Every manager shall so store his goods as to admit of free ingress for the removal of the goods and for quenching a fire, if any.
- (2) He shall not cause or suffer any cover of combustible material to be erected or placed over or adjoining any such goods.
- (3) He shall at all times keep the premises clean and dry to the satisfaction of the President, Vice-President or the Health Officer.
- (4) He shall not allow smoking or the introduction of fire into the premises, and he shall always store sufficient quantity of water to quench the fire, if any.
- (5) He shall carry out his trade in such a way as not to make his premises a source of danger or nuisance to the persons residing in, or resorting to, the neighbourhood.

(6) He shall comply with any requisition from the President, Vice-President or the Health Officer, contained in a notice for the total or partial removal from the premises of the aforesaid goods, or the removal of any other combustible materials not intended for sale or for rectifying any error or omission in attending to the above provisions.

9. In the case of Offensive Trades as defined above—

- (1) Every manager shall confine his trade to be carried on strictly in the place shown in the license.
- (2) He shall cause all materials received for the purposes of his trade to be stored, when not required for immediate use, in such a manner as to prevent the emission of noxious or injurious effluvia therefrom.
- (3) He shall adopt the best practicable means of rendering innocuous all vapours emitted during the process of the trade either by proper ventilation, or, other suitable means.
- (4) He shall keep the floor of the premises in good order and repair so as to prevent the absorption of any liquid, filth or refuse or any noxious or injurious matter which may fall or be deposited upon.
- (5) He shall maintain means of proper drainage and shall always keep them in good order.
- (6) He shall cause the premises to be cleaned at the close of every working day.
- (7) He shall not allow any refuse or waste matters not intended for any further process of the trade which are likely to be a source of danger or nuisance, to be deposited in or around the premises, but shall have them removed daily to a place approved by the President specially for the purpose.
- (8) He shall adopt such other precautions as are necessary to minimize the danger or nuisance to the public from the use to which such premises are put.
- (9) He shall comply with any requisition from the President, Vice-President or Health Officer, contained in a notice for rectifying any error or omission in attending to the above provisions and for promoting the health of the persons employed in such trades.

10. The President shall have power to suspend or withdraw a license granted for dangerous or offensive trade whenever he deems such a course necessary in the interests of the convenience and safety of the public generally or of the persons inhabiting, or resorting to, the neighbourhood of the premises covered by such license or whenever the conditions of a license are not obeyed.
